

SAILL into SUMMER!

with the Springfield Area Institute of Lifelong Learning

USS Summer SAILL Sessions! July 9 - August 10, 2018

Registration begins

Monday, June 25, 2018

at United Senior Services
125 West Main Street, Springfield

Stop by the Matthies Welcome Center for Registration Information

Cake Decorating - Learn to make not only beautiful but tasty confections. Four weekly classes taught by cake maker extraordinaire, Sandra Castleberry. Maximum 5 participants. $20 Thursdays, July 12, 19, 26, and August 2, 1:30-2:30pm

Cooking Demonstration by Season's Bistro - Chef Doug McGregor creates a savory summer dish...taste-testing is encouraged! Maximum 20 participants. $5 Thursday, August 9, 4-5pm

Crazy About Sunflowers - Want to create a sunflower painting? Join Gail Hakala-Eldridge, to make your own acrylic sunflower painting using pointillism and other Impressionist styles. Learn how to control acrylic paint, juxtapose color in order to capture the beautiful essence of 'the flower that faces the sun.' Supplies participants bring to first class: 12"x 12" (or larger) square canvas, acrylic paint set w/basic colors, 2 round and 1 flat paint brushes. Maximum 10 participants. $25 Tuesdays, July 10, 17, 24, 31, and August 7, 1-2:30pm

Creative Cards - Design personalized greeting cards for a variety of occasions. Bring your own adhesive - glue stick or tape runner. Imagination a must! Class led by Carol Lloyd and Marjorie Vereen. Maximum 8 participants. $10 Thursday, July 12, 10am-12pm

Handpainted Garden Peace Poles - Tammy Irick will teach you the history of the Peace Pole and how to design and paint a wooden peace pole that will bring bold color and peace to your outdoor surroundings this summer. Maximum 15 participants. $10 + $15 Supply fee paid to instructor at first class. Thursdays, July, 26 and August 2, 4-5:30pm

History of Pilot Training 1917-1961 - Aviation Cadets were the backbone of the Air Force for half a century. Jack Mecham was solely responsible for planning and issuing frag orders for the 20th Helicopter Squadron. He will share his perspective on aviation cadets, their training, and reconnaissance research. Maximum 20 participants. $15 Tuesdays, July 10, 17 and 24, 4-5pm

Intermediate Ukulele - Four strings...continue the happiness with John Lippolis. Play and sing along to your favorite oldies! Maximum 15 participants. $20 Tuesdays, August 7, 14, 21, 28, 9:30 to 10:15 am

Jewelry Making - Get Your Bling-Bling on! Learn jewelry making basics while creating unique earrings and bracelets with Tracy Wickham. Maximum 10 students. $15 + $10 paid to instructor at first class. Wednesdays, July 11, 18, 25, 3-4:30pm

Line Dancing - Kick up your heels and strut your stuff! Kathy Robinson shows you a fun way to exercise and keep in shape. Maximum 30 participants. $20 Thursdays, July 12, 19, 26, and August 2, 10-11am

Mysteries of Language - What is Language and who makes the rules? Why is learning a language so hard and how can my brain hold more than one language? Taught by Dr. Barbara Matthies. (This popular class was first held in 2016.) Maximum 15 participants, $20, Mondays, July 9, 16, 23, 30, 10-11am

Sew a Fabric Rope Basket - Make a colorful coiled rope basket - perfect size to hold your treasures. Taught by Joan Butz. Bring your own sewing machine. Supply list available at registration. Maximum 8 participants. $15 Wednesday, July 25, 9am-12pm

Springfield Then and Now, Part II - Photos and stories of community landmarks and how they have changed through the years. Walk down memory lane with Natalie Fritz, Curator at the Heritage Center of Clark County. Maximum 25 participants. $5 Tuesday, August 7, 1-2pm

Sponsored by Springfield Masonic Community

Chief Black Hoof: A Very Special Mystery - Historical instructor, Rusty Cottrel returns as Chief Black Hoof sharing national and local history plus perspectives throughout Chief Black Hoof's amazing 111 year life, including service as an active warrior past the age of 90. Maximum 140 participants. NC Monday, July 9, 1-2:30pm at the Festival Green Club House, Springfield Masonic Community, Light refreshments will be served.